About Dr. Sanlo

Dr. Ronni Sanlo is a dynamic well-known keynote speaker and workshop presenter at colleges, universities, organizations, and businesses around the country. Her focus is Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender (LGBT) issues, policy, history, learning outcomes, strategic planning, and LGBT center and organizational development. Ronni speaks not only from her perspective as a higher education/student affairs professor but also from her personal and professional life experiences.

Ronni retired from UCLA as the Senior Associate Dean of Students, Professor/Director of the UCLA Masters of Education in Student Affairs, and Faculty-in-Residence. Ronni was the director of the UCLA LGBT Center, and formerly the LGBT Center director at the University of Michigan. Prior to entering higher education, Ronni was an HIV epidemiologist in Florida. She earned her bachelor's degree from the University of Florida, and a masters and doctorate in educational leadership and organizational development from the University of North Florida in Jacksonville, FL. Ronni lives in Palm Springs, CA, where she continues to write and plays rotten but passionate golf.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING...

"Ronni, when I think of individuals who have inspired so many of us to embrace being "practitioner-scholars", you are at the top of my list. Thanks for modeling and paving the way for so many of us—me in particular!"

Dr. Brent Bilodeau
LGBT Center Director
Michigan State University

Thank you again for providing an outstanding keynote speech for the CSUN Pride Center Grand Opening, as well as a superb and deeply valuable training for our Student Health Services staff and campus partners! We received so many wonderful comments about your presentations from both our staff and our colleagues. We look forward to inviting you back again next year.

Yolanda (Linda) Reid Chassiakos, MD , Director
Klotz Student Health Center
California State University Northridge

Bravo, What a terrific presentation! Thank you for sharing your expertise, passion, and personality with us.

Linda Orozco, Professor, College of Education
California State University Fullerton

I was fortunate enough to be able to attend the 2nd Annual Harvey Milk Celebration Dinner, on IUPUI's campus, on October 11th. Your story is quite touching and overwhelmingly inspiring, and I thoroughly enjoyed hearing you speak that evening. I really wish many of my loved ones would have been in that audience. I believe it is so imperative for professional men and women in our communities to stand up and speak out, intelligently and respectfully, for if people continue to hide, surely nothing will ever change.

Lesley Neff, M.A., Director of Educational Services
Indiana University Purdue University Indiana

You are one of our community's most recognized leaders.

Joe McCormack
Point Foundation

You're the best!

Dr. Kevin Colaner, Assistant Vice President
California Polytechnic University Pomona (CalPoly)

I am so thankful to you for all the knowledge and information you brought to campus.

Cristina Madrigal, LGBT Center
University of California Santa Barbara
